THE BRIDGEWATER NORMAL SCHOOL CREED

1. I believe in being loyal to my school.
2. I believe that this is my school and that my actions as an individual will reflect for better or for worse on the school.
3. I believe in giving my energy to school organizations and activities.
4. I believe that I am here mainly in earnest preparation for my life-career.
5. I believe in standing for honesty and uprightness, expecting my associates to do likewise.
6. I believe that the reputation I gain in my first year may follow me throughout my course; therefore I must choose my friends and interests carefully.
7. I believe in striving earnestly for the best and not being satisfied with anything less.
8. I believe in taking an interest in the things that will make me a cultured, well-rounded member of society.

9. I believe that personal appearance and manner are indications of character and refinement.
10. I believe in cultivating a professional spirit and the qualites of dependability, initiative, and coöperation.
11. I believe in being clean in thought, word, and deed.
12. I believe in my school motto, "Not to be ministered unto, but to minister," and I shall hold to this motto throughout my life.
